The Property

TG Sales are delighted to present this spacious three-bedroom semi-detached property for sale in the sought-after location of Kingsholm. This delightful bay-fronted Victorian semi-detached home requires modernisation but has the potential to be a fantastic family home.

On the ground floor, the property features an entrance hall, a large lounge to the front, a dining room to the rear, a kitchen, and a downstairs bathroom. Three double bedrooms are located on the first floor, and two additional rooms are located on the second floor.

Outside is an enclosed rear garden mainly laid to lawn, and permit parking is available at the front.

Offered with NO ONWARD CHAIN, early viewing is advised.

Situation

Henry Road is popular due to its close proximity to Gloucester City Centre and it's style of property. It also gains it's popularity due being close to Kingsholm Primary School and Denmark Road High School. The city is just a short distance away as is the home of Gloucester Rugby. Train, bus and motorways are all in easy reach.
